

please keep the ban on cell phone use while in flight- while i would support the ability to email or instant message during a flight, talking on a phone would represent an extreme discomfort and annoyance to anyone wanting some peace and quiet.